

Reach 50,000 Unique Users Each Month on recorder.c
THE RECORDER . . . Reaching out through print and O

THE RECORDER

HOME LOCAL SUBSCRIBE CALENDAR OBITUARIES CLASSIFIED

Sports

School baseball: Porter, Warriors blank Wave

Mohawk Trail Regional High School scored twice in the first inning and it was more than enough for pitcher Doug Porter, as the senior hurler went the distance to lead the Warriors to their first win of the season, a 3-0 victory over Greenfield High School in a Hampshire League baseball game Friday in Buckland.

Schools: Mailloux, Indians blank Hampshire

Turners Falls High School scored once in the first inning and pitcher Emily Mailloux made it count as the Indians took a 1-0 win over Hampshire Regional High School in a Franklin County League softball game Friday night in Turners Falls.

Duclos whiffs 13 in 6-0 Greenfield win

Mike Duclos fired a two-hitter with 13 strikeouts to lead Greenfield High School to a 6-0 victory over Turners Falls High School in a Hampshire League baseball game Thursday night at the Bourdeau Fields Complex in Turners Falls.

Duclos surrendered a double to Brody Markol and a single to T.J. Meyer during his complete-game win, while walking only three.

Schools: Indians beaten by Orioles on courts

Belchertown High School swept all three singles matches and went on to defeat Turners Falls High School 4-1, in an independent boys' tennis match Thursday at the Bourdeau Fields Complex in Turners Falls. Summer Forest-Bulley and Zach Boisvert earned the only point for the Indians, as they outlasted the Orioles' Louis Curto and Ryan Foley, 6-4, 6-4, at second doubles.

School softball: Raiders outlast Tech, 15-12

A huge lead nearly slipped away for Athol High School, but the Red Raiders fought through the drizzle to hold off Franklin County Technical School for a 15-12 win in an independent softball game Wednesday morning in Turners Falls.

On the Trail: Twin killing?

A sighting, speculation and a rumor: that's all I've got. Guess it'll have to do.

School baseball: Raiders deny Turners Falls surge, 4-3

Athol High School built an early lead and then staved off a late comeback attempt by Turners Falls High School to hold on for a 4-3 victory in a Hampshire League baseball game Tuesday in Athol.

Boxer Lamonakis posts fifth straight pro win

Sonya Lamonakis can now claim to have a handful of wins in her professional boxing career. Literally.

School softball: Turners Falls clubs Mahar

Brittany York clubbed two doubles and a triple to lead Turners Falls High School to a 16-1 win over Mahar Regional School in a mercy-rule-shortened, five-inning Franklin County League softball game Monday afternoon in Orange.

Jaywalking: Whistler's Cup GS victory puts Mooney on the map

Two years ago, I checked in with Charlemont native Ryan Mooney right after he won the J4 Future Stars ski race at Okemo Mountain, which featured the best 12 & under skiers in the eastern United States. My, how far he has come in just a couple of years.

USER GUIDE

The information in this section should help to provide our readers and prospective subscribers and advertisers with answers to some frequently asked questions.

Read more

ABOUT OUR PAPER

The Recorder considers itself among the oldest newspapers in the United States. The modern Recorder represents mergers among a number of earlier publications, including one begun in 1792.

Read more

SUBSCRIBE

Order a subscription to The Recorder and receive Home Delivery Monday-Saturday. To subscribe call us at 413-774-2741 or fill out the online form. Home Delivery subscriptions also give you free access to the electronic edition of The Recorder.

Read more

CONTACT

Phone:
Fax:
Mail:
Green
E-Mail:
Address:

Search Archive WI